

200 YEARS

Bring the Bicentennial to your event

INDIANA UNIVERSITY BICENTENNIAL
SPEAKERS BUREAU

Meet our speakers

The Office of the Bicentennial makes speakers available for events and organizations, now through June 30, 2020.

Book a speaker today at go.iu.edu/speakers.

Judith Allen

Walter Professor,
Department of History,
IU Bloomington

Carey Beam

Director, Wylie House

James Capshew

University Historian

J. Terry Clapacs

Vice President
Emeritus,
IU Bloomington

Patrick Furlong

Professor Emeritus
of History and
Campus Historian,
IU South Bend

Gerardo Gonzalez

Dean Emeritus,
School of Education,
IU Bloomington

Elizabeth
Gritter

Assistant Professor of History,
IU Southeast

Richard Gunderman

Chancellor's Professor
of Radiology, Pediatrics,
Medical Education,
Philosophy, Liberal Arts, Philanthropy, and
Medical Humanities
and Health Studies, IUPUI

Jeremy Hackerd

Project Manager,
Office of the Bicentennial

Sarah Heath

Associate Professor of History, IU Kokomo

Dina Kellams

Director of University
Archives and Associate
Librarian, IU Libraries,
IU Bloomington

Kelly Kish

Director,
Office of the Bicentennial

Steve McShane

Co-Director and
Archivist, Calumet
Regional Archives,
IU Northwest

William H.
Schneider

Professor Emeritus
of History and
Medical Humanities,
IUPUI

Elizabeth South

Archivist, IU East

Frances Yates

Director of Library
and Campus Historian,
IU East

How to book a speaker

Speakers are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Tell us about your event and request a speaker at go.iu.edu/speakers.

The Office of the Bicentennial covers most of the costs for providing a speaker. Significant travel costs are not included.

Experts on all things IU

What leadership skills can we learn from Herman B Wells?

Who were the most influential women in early IU history?

What's a Frangipana?

Members of the Bicentennial Speakers Bureau are available to speak in depth about the past, present, and future of Indiana University.

Topics cover the people, places, and traditions of IU, as well as how the university has adapted to 200 years of cultural change.

Visit go.iu.edu/speakers to book a speaker for your event.

Speakers for any IU topic

General IU history

Student life

IU Bicentennial programs

IU athletics

The founding of IU

Community engagement

IU research

Former IU presidents

First-Generation
IU students

Regional campuses

IU women's history

Author discussions

IU museums
and archives

Oral histories

See a full list of topics at go.iu.edu/speakers.

1820–2020

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
BICENTENNIAL